Spring Break-a-Leg (Daytimes, M-F, April 10-14, 2023)

Next Gen School of Theatre (Daytimes, M-F, June 26-August 25, 2023)

POSITION: Teaching Artist

DEPARTMENT: Learning and Engagement

LOCATION: We are currently teaching in-person, in the greater Ithaca, NY area. We do not currently offer housing for this position.

FULL-TIME OR PART-TIME: Part-time/Contracted

IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR: Artistic Director/Director of Education

COMPENSATION: We offer an hourly pay rate of $17 to $25 an hour for lead teachers, depending on the specific contract and level of experience.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching Artists function in their role in a classroom during an artistic residency; or as a lead teacher during our Next Generation school break and summer classes. Teaching Artists should be comfortable leading a group of young people in improvisation games, movement and vocal exercises, and other theatre-related exercises as well as structuring a curriculum (of varying lengths) to fill classroom time in an engaging, creative, and fun way. We are also interested in teaching artists with special skills in musical theatre, dance, singing, visual arts, improvisation, movement, stage combat, clowning, and playwriting.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES

- Leading improvisational theater games and exercises
- Assisting with lesson planning
- Teaching basic theatre concepts and awareness in an age-appropriate way
- Directing youth in writing and rehearsing original plays

QUALIFICATIONS/SKILL SETS

- Degree and/or equivalent experience in arts education, education, fine arts, and/or performing arts
- Experience working with young people at the elementary and/or secondary school level
- A commitment to the principles of equity, diversity, inclusion and access (EDIA)
- Cultural competence; the ability to interact effectively and thoughtfully with people across different cultures, backgrounds, and identities; and an understanding of the principles of antiracism and anti oppression.
- A connection with the Hangar's Artistic and Educational Mission and Values.

- A love for the arts and a passion for working with young artists!

The Hangar is currently a fully vaccinated company; all teaching artists are required to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 by the start of their employment
