Letter from the Producing Artistic Director

Shirley Serotsky

To the Hangar Community—Friends, Supporters, Artists, Audience, Students, and Participants:

In 2024 we celebrated our 50th season, while looking ahead to our 50th birthday. Are we allowed to recognize both of these milestones? Absolutely. These days, we deserve to celebrate anything that brings light and joy to the world.

We shared great performances, evocative stories, stunning designs, and memorable educational experiences with the community throughout this season.

Audiences raved:

- "The show was so much fun, and as usual, the cast was amazing. The gardens looked beautiful, the staff was friendly and welcoming."
- "Super fun, entertaining, cheerful, and inspiring. My kids loved it!"
- "Outrageously engaging"
- "Gorgeous songs and incredible singing. Extremely talented cast. I left feeling exhilarated. Thanks so much to everyone involved in the production for making something so wonderful to share with our community!"
- "I was totally enthralled and quickly invested in this performance!"
- "Thank you for always providing such enjoyable entertainment to the Ithaca community."
- "One of the best presentations I have ever seen at the Hangar, and I have attended most shows for the last 50 years. Keep up the excellent work!"

Meanwhile, our wide-ranging education programs:

- Welcomed over 315 young people into Next Generation School of Theatre class sessions that celebrated their imagination and individuality.
- Brought Project 4 Arts-in-the-Classroom Residencies into 3 School Districts and 29 Classrooms to reach 525+ students, 35+ classroom teachers, and 1000+ family and community members.
- And provided free and highly subsidized tickets for young people from Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC), Cass Park Day Camp, South Seneca Elementary, Kids Adventure Club, Village at Ithaca, and other area youth-centered organizations and schools.

We were able to produce such a robust, diverse, and ambitious season of programming thanks to the support of our Board, patrons, donors, sponsors, and extended community—and the incredible roster of artists, designers, technicians, performers, and teaching artists who joined us last summer.

With gratitude,

Message from the Board Presidents

Nichole Gantshar, Co-President

Liebe Meier, Co-President

Dear Friends,

As the Hangar Theatre raises the curtain on its 50th year, the Board of Trustees extends our deepest gratitude to all who have brought us to this extraordinary moment.

Fifty years ago, a group of passionate artists and dreamers envisioned a space where stories could come to life and bring people together. Today, thanks to your unwavering support, that vision continues to thrive. Whether you've been with us from the beginning or are new to the Hangar Family, you are part of a legacy that spans generations.

As we celebrate this golden anniversary, we look back with pride and forward with excitement. This season's productions reflect the heart of what we've always believed: that theater has the power to illuminate, entertain, and unite. We are honoring the past, embracing the present, and building a future that keeps the arts alive and vital in our region.

In a time when the world needs creativity, empathy, and shared experience more than ever, your presence here – your applause, your generosity, your belief in the transformative power of theater – sustains us. To our donors, subscribers, volunteers, artists, and audiences: Thank You. You are the reason the Hangar has endured and grown.

With heartfelt appreciation,

The Board of Trustees

The Hangar Theatre: A Remarkable Space

Did you know that we welcome numerous Tompkins County arts and culture organizations into the Hangar Theatre space to share music, dance, comedy, theatre, and other live performances with the region every year?

In 2024 these included:

Co-Productions with Dan Smalls Presents (DSP) including concerts featuring Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Suzanne Vega, Steve Hofstetter, Preacher Lawson, and Iris Dement.

As well as collaborations with numerous Central NY organizations on rentals of the Hangar Theatre, including: Opera Ithaca, Ithaca Ballet, Seven Wonders Productions, Finger Lakes Runners Club, AAA, Visit Ithaca, Hupstate, Bound for Glory, Running to Places, Ithaca College, and WSKG.

When asked about the Hangar's unique qualities as a venue:

“The Hangar Theatre has been a true community partner to Running to Places. As our name suggests, we depend on finding venues for each of our shows, which is tricky from scheduling, logistical, and financial reasons. The leadership at the Hangar has consistently worked in a spirit of cooperation and generosity to accommodate us and our unique needs as both a performing arts and youth development organization. We are very grateful to our friends at the Hangar and are looking forward to many more wonderful collaborations in the future.”

—Joey Steinhagen, Founder and Artistic Director of Running to Places

Opera Ithaca is proud to have brought many captivating operas to life at The Hangar Theatre over the past decade. This remarkable venue provides a unique, intimate setting combined with flexible space, enabling us to craft stunning theatrical performances that create unforgettable experiences for our audience.”

— Gretchen Van Valen, Managing Director of Opera Ithaca

We at DSP love the Hangar Theatre for its layout and capacity. The nearly 180 degree seating allows for an extremely intimate performance and a closeness to the musicians that is hard to find in other rooms. When legends like Steve Earle and Judy Collins and the Cowboy Junkies rave about the space it brings it all home. But it's also a space where we can showcase acts about to break out like Julien Baker and Rhiannon Giddens and Hayley Heynderickx.”

— Dan Smalls, Dan Smalls Presents

Hangar Field Trips: A Memorable Experience!

Did you know that we welcome groups from Ithaca-area schools into the Hangar every year? Schools who participate in Project 4 take a field trip to the theatre for their Hangar Day, and for the past two years we have produced a KIDDSTUFF show during the school year, allowing us to welcome young people and educators into the Hangar to experience live theatre.

Groups from the following schools visited the Hangar in 2024:

- Belle Sherman Elementary
- Caroline Elementary
- Cayuga Heights Elementary
- Dryden Elementary
- EAC Montessori
- Enfield Elementary
- Newfield Elementary
- South Seneca Elementary

When school groups come to the Hangar...

...students have the opportunity to perform on the Hangar stage.

When Project 4 schools come to the theatre for their Hangar Day, fourth graders rehearse and perform plays that they have written and are given a tour of the theatre!

...young people get to experience interactive, engaging live performances.

Our 2024 production of Snow White offered school groups the opportunity to experience the power of live performance and engage with professional actors.

...educators can incorporate the experience and themes from the show into their classrooms.

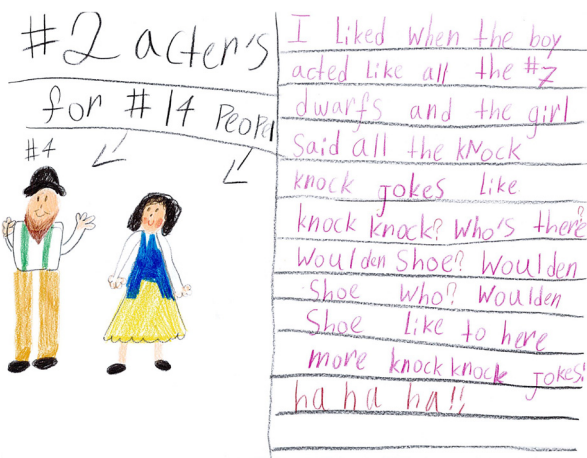

Educators can incorporate show themes such as developing resilience, telling traditional stories in new ways, or the value of multiple perspectives, as well as topics like the origins of fairy tales and engaging in drama exploration into their classrooms.

A 4th grade class visits the Hangar during their Project 4 Residency.

Theatre for All at the Hangar

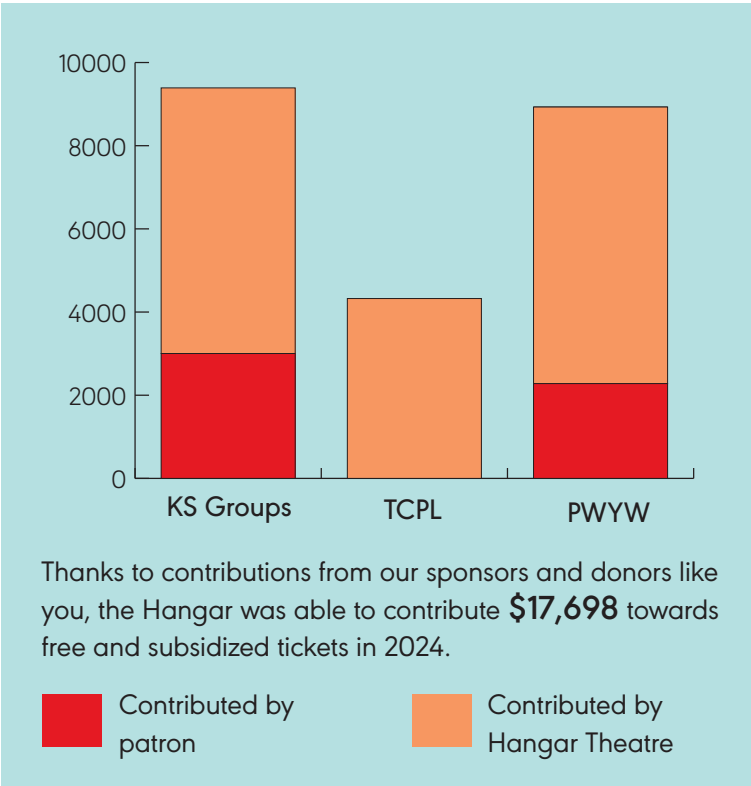

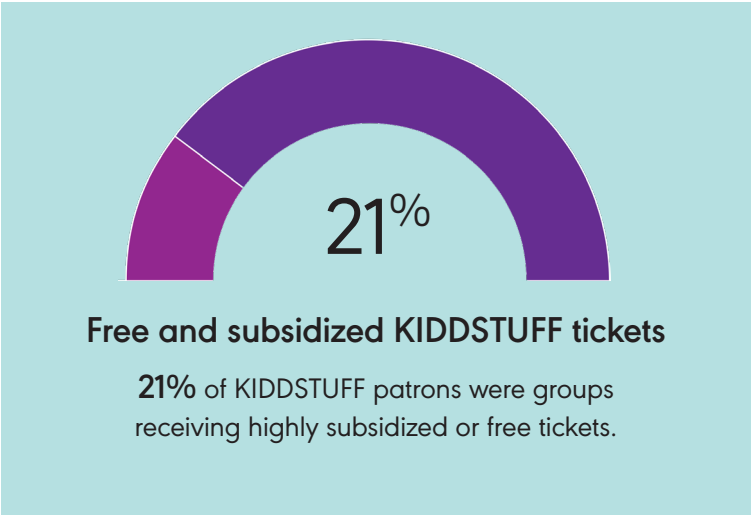

Did you know that we provide a variety of options for acquiring free and subsidized tickets to all Mainstage and KIDDSTUFF productions? These include our Pay What You Will (PWYW) program, the Tompkins County Library Pass, and subsidized tickets for groups attending KIDDSTUFF shows.

The Hangar Theatre’s Pay What You Will program (which allows community members to pay a ticket price that works for them) launched in 2005, and expanded to include all Mainstage and KIDDSTUFF performances in 2021. This program and others are only possible thanks to the support of generous sponsors and individuals like you.

Thanks to the support of sponsors and donors, the Hangar Theatre is able to offer patrons a variety of ways to acquire free and subsidized tickets, so that economic means are not a barrier to experiencing live theatre.

PWYW and the TCPL pass

Pay What you will (PWYW) tickets are available at all performances of Hangar Mainstage and KIDDSTUFF productions. Patrons can also check out a Tompkins County Library Pass (TCPL) and use it to redeem up to 4 tickets to any Hangar Production. In 2024, almost 300 patrons used one of these two options to see a show at the Hangar.

What patrons have to say about our Pay What You Will program:

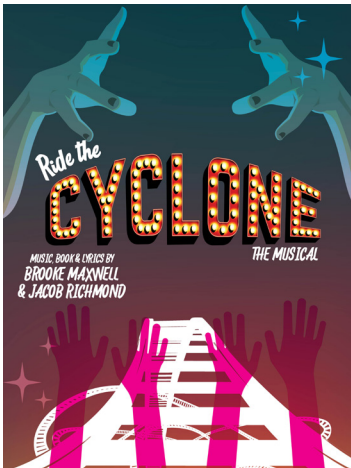

I really appreciate that you provide Pay-What-You-Will tickets to all events.

I’m thankful you have the pay what you will option, sensory friendly shows, and other accommodations that may performances accessible to a wider audience.

I so appreciate the pay-as-you-go policy that allows students to afford tickets—it means so much!

James joined the cast of Billy Elliot as “Tall Boy/Posh Boy” and brought humor, commitment, and spirit to that role, and has since been a wonderful presence at the Hangar as a Teaching-Artist-in-Training and an enthusiastic ambassador to the community of young artists here in Ithaca. We are excited to see where life takes them next!

Hangar Theatre Company Land Acknowledgement

The Hangar Theatre is located on the traditional homelands of the Gayogóhó:nq' (the Cayuga Nation). The Gayogóhó:nq' are members of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, an alliance of six sovereign Nations with a historic and contemporary presence on this land. The Confederacy precedes the establishment of the Hangar Theatre, New York state, and the United States of America. With this statement, the Hangar Theatre acknowledges the painful history of Gayogóhó:nq' dispossession, and honors the ongoing connection of Gayogóhó:nq' people, past and present, to these lands and waters.
