STATEMENT OF JOB:

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching Artists serve in a classroom, during an artistic residency, or as a lead teacher during our Next Generation school break and summer classes. Teaching Artists must be comfortable leading a group of young people in improvisation games, movement and vocal exercises, and other theatre-related exercises as well as structuring a curriculum (of varying lengths) to fill classroom time in an engaging, creative, and fun way. We are also interested in teaching artists with special skills in musical theatre, dance, singing, visual arts, improvisation, movement, stage combat, clowning, or text work.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES:

- Leading improvisational theater games
- Teaching basic theatre history and awareness in an age-appropriate way
- Directing youth in writing and rehearsing original plays
- Assisting with lesson planning
- Strong and confident classroom management skills
- A love for the arts and working with young people!

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree or certification in early childhood education, education, fine arts, or performing arts
- Professional experience working with children at the elementary and/or secondary school level
- Passion for arts education
